Daily Readings for Lent, 2023 from the Revised Common Lectionary

During the season of Lent in which we journey with Jesus toward his death and resurrection we remember and acknowledge that through Jesus Christ, God revealed his steadfast love (HESED) for humanity and God's commitment to the word spoken of a New Covenant in which the Spirit will be given to guide each human heart. We journey towards our death to self that we may rise again to a new life in which we live as Christ's new creation.

We invite you to read any of these daily scriptures and remember that you are reading with people all over the globe. There is no test on what you read; this is for your own connection with God.

Here are some questions to consider as you read. You may want to keep a running journal.

- 1) What do you learn about who God is?
- 2) What do you learn about humankind?
- 3) What is an invitation or message for your life?
- 4) What questions do you have for God?
